RECOVERING-MEASURES TAKEN TO GUARD AGAINST INFECTION. It was reported in Brooklyn yesterday that two more cases of yellow fever had broken out on the Vermont, but late in the afternoon the Health Board had not been informed of any new cases, and did not credit the report. On the contrary, Surgeon J. G. Ayer, of the Colorado, reported to the Health Board that there were no new cases, and his sick list had been reduced to one person suffering from diarrhea. He also de an official report of the diagnoses of the cases Five of the patients had been sleeping on the Vermont for several weeks. Dr. Wickoff had sleet on the Col-The symptoms were a mild chili, pain in the forehead, back and extremities; furred tongue, temperature from 102° to 104° in the first forty-eight hours, pulse not higher than 100 in any case. In half the cases there was great irritation of the stomach. The treatment was chiefly cathartic, quinine in large doses, blistering of the stomach, use of ice and barley water.

A long dispatch was received by the Health Board from Dr. Vanderpoel, Health Officer of Quarantine, mating that if any new cases occurred the Government should send a vessel below Quarantine to receive them, as he is unable to furnish assistance. The Vermout was thoroughly fumigated yesterday, and the clothing and effects of the sick men were destroyed. The Vermont, which has been used as a receiving ship for twenty years, resembles a house more than a ship, as it is roofed in and supplied with Ridgewood water pipes and sewer new cases occurred they should be at once removed to the fever hospital at Lower Quarantine, as it was not deemed advisable that any patients should be taken to the Naval Hospital. Dr. Crane also visited the hospital. The three men reported as attacked with the fever were yester-lay reported as convalencent, and one of them had been able to leave his room.

A force of men was engaged yesterday in carrying out the Health Board's suggestions, in regard to the dismection and covering over of the material on the cobiock. Copies of the communications addressed to Commodore Nicholson were forwarded to Secretary Thompson, the Hon. S. H. Chittenden and Dr. Cowes. Commodore Nicholson also wrote to Secretary Thompson, calling his attention to the suggestion of a sewer connection between the Naval Hospital and the city, and stating that it was a most important matter, and should receive framediatenttention. The dredring has been discontinued, and will not be renowed until cool weather sets in.

Secretary La Fetra, of the Health Board, stated yesterday that the maiaria from the sewage in the basin mear the Vermont and Colorado, doubliess prepared the constitutions of the men for the disease brought in the stone ballast of the Jannita Clar. This is a light, grayfish, porous stone, and has a peculiar smell. A small specimen lay on Mr. La Fetra's desk yesterday. The doto, he thought, arose from the saturation of the stone with bilge water. The history of the vessel that brought the infection has been traced by the Health Board. She is a bark of 436 tons buttien, and sailed from Havana June I, in ballast, consigned to Zuricalday & Arquimbau, of No. 102 Peari-st., New-York. She arrived in this port June 13, and was detained and thoroughly fumigated at Quarantine. She then proceeded to the cob dock and discharged here. She cleared for Cadig, Spain, on June 30, and has not since been heard from. "All her crew may be dead of yoilow fever by this time, for aught we know," said Mr. La Fetra.

THE NEW AND OLD COLLECTORS. GENERAL MERRITT'S VISIT TO WASHINGTON-GEN

ERAL ARTHUR PREPARING TO LEAVE THE

General Merritt went to Washington yesterday, to confer, it is understood, with Secretary Sherman and the United States Commissioner of Customs in regard to the policy to be pursued in the management of the Custom House. He will return this morning and will take possession of the Collector's office at 4 o'clock. The probable changes were freely discussed yesterday, and it was generally believed that Deputy Collector John J. Osborn would be selected as successor to Colonel Lydecker, whose resignation, it is expected, will be sent to General Arthur before he retires from office. It is also stated that a special deputy collector will be sworn in by General Merrits to-day, to act in case of the absence or sickness of the Collector. The resignation of Private Secretary Phillips was semi-officially announced yesterday, and the vacancy will probably be filled at ce by General Merritt. Mr. Phillips is in reality a high-grade clerk, and was detailed by General Arthur perform the duties of private secretary on account of his experience and thorough knowledge of customsiness. Colonel Burt was absent from the house business. Colonel Burt was absent from the Naval Office yesterday, the duties of the department devolving upon Special Doputy Coneb.

General Arthur has completed all arrangements for turning over the Collector's Dopartment to General Merrist. His private papers, the accumulation of seven years service in the department, have been packed away and will not be removed until after the formal transfer has been made. The desks, chairs, tables and libraries were all carefully arranged yesterday, and the Collector's rooms presented a neat and orderly appearance. The pictures, including some which cost General Arthur $250 each, will be left on the walls of the department as a giff to the Custom House. Among them is an excellent portrait of ex-Collector Smyth, the only one that was furnished in response to the request of General Arthur that all former Collectors should send in a portrait to be kept in the Custom House, General Arthur in company with General Sharpe, will leave this evening for the Catakill Mountains. After a brief stay, he will join his family, which is now in the interior of the State.

It was reported in this city last evening that no men tion was made at the Cabinet meeting yesterday of the vacant Surveyorship, but it is asserted that there is little doubt but that the selection of a military gentieman, resident in this city, to fill the vacancy can be determined upon, and that it will be announced early next

KANSAS PACIFIC SECURITIES.

THEIR POSITION ON THE STOCK EXCHANGE LIST. The Committee on Stock List of the Stock Exchange met the representatives of the Denver Extension mortrage bonds, yesterday, to hear arguments on the two propositions regarding the status of these securities on the Exchange list. Mesers. Myers and Weerishoeffer, representing the committee of nine first mortgage bondholders, desired that the receipts of the United States Trust Company, showing that the Denver bonds to be employed in the purchase and reconstruction of the Kansas Pacific road should be substituted on the Exchange list for the actual bonds on deposit. This was opposed by Jay Gould and Russell Sage, representing the "pool," who insisted that such a step would be improper and against precedent, unless a majority of the bonds was actually on deposit; and as a substitute they submitted a proposition that the mortgage bonds and stock of the Kansas Pacific road be placed on the active instead of the free list, as at present—a Denver Extension mortgage bond of $1,000 accompanied by certificate C tor $87.50 to be a good delivery, the other two certificates known as A and Aa for $35 each to be dealt in separately. Mr. Gould objected to the course pursued by the committee of nine, and he charged that the members of the committee had made representations to him which they had afterward repudiated, and that they had also issued a circular containing false statements reflecting upon the pool and himself.

Mr. Myers replied that the theory of the pool was based on its paying $250,000 for interest to be distributed among the bondholders as they surrendered their bonds, and that if this interest was not paid the bonds were not to be delivered; also that Mr. Gould had no right to complain because the committee of nine had kept the bondholders away.

It is committee finally declined to permit the certificate of receipt issued by the United States Trust Company to be called instead of bonds, unless it should be clearly shown that a unjority of the bonds was on depose, and it was decided to place the Kansas Pucific bonds and stock on the regular call bereafter. instead of the free list, as at present-a Denver Exten-

LESSENED RAIN-FALL IN THIS CITY.

REPORT OF DIRECTOR DRAPER OF THE CENTRAL PARK OBSERVATORY.

Daniel Draper, Director of the New-York Meteorological Observatory in Central Park, has pre sented to the Park Commissioners his annual report for 1877. He states that the ninit year of the Observatory has just been completed, during which time there has been obtained a continuous record for every instant of each day by the self-recording tostruments that have been constructed in the Observatory. Personal observa-tions have also been taken. The records of these years have all been preserved in the fire-proof vault Arsenal Building. He states that they have been largely used in the courts for legal purposes, by private citizens and by the Corporation Counsel, and by the Commission ers of the Health Department in their statistics of dis-

In the hast report the following question was closely examined: "Haw there been in late years a change in the rain-fall of New-York City, or its vicinity, affecting seriously like water stupply?" If was found by former ubserverious that there had been an increase of rain until 1869, and affer first year a steady decrease. In examining this question more-thoroughly, Mr. Deraper, in his report, says that another question arises: "Does the rain-fall of New-York still diminish; will it continue to deso, and does this variation occur in the early or latter portion of the year?" He adds: "It appears that the lain-lail of this city will most probably continue to decrease by fluctuations for several years to come, and that the variations are nearly the same in the two portions of the pear."

THE DISTRICT COURTS' INVESTIGATION. At the adjourned meeting Thursday of the Special Aldermen's Committee to investigate the Civil District Courts only one witness, Goorge Hatzell, was examined. He testified that while he was Marshal of the Fourth District Court he never made any arrangements with Gardner to prepare papers for him. Gardner some times filled out papers, and the witness paid him $\overline{\text{the witness also paid for processes.}} The money came from the landlords. He never had any conversation with Stern in regard to payment for the preparation of papers.

FUNERAL SERVICES OF MARY WELLS. TROOPS OF PROFESSIONAL PRIENDS AT THE "LIT-

THE CHURCH AROUND THE CORNER." The "Little Church Around the Corner,' in East Twenty-ninth-st., was crowded yesterday after noon with members of the dramatic profession, who had come to pay their last tribute of respect to Miss Mary Probably not since the day of George Holland's burial from this church, six years ago, which ushered in the custom of actors' burials at this place, has there been a larger assemblage within its doors than that which gathered yesterday. Among those present were Mrs. George Boulface, Mrs. Louisa Eldridge, Mrs. J. W. Brutene, Miss Annie Lonsdale, Madame Ponisi, Mrs Darcy, Mrs. Marie Wilkins, Mrs. Sol Smith, Miss May Davenport, Miss Amy Lee, Miss Elsie Moore, Miss Eld ridge, Mrs. N. B. Clarke, J. H. McVicker, Leon J. Vincent. Miss Wells's old stage manager; David Anderson John Moore, Joseph H. Tooker, J. Daveau, Thomas Morris, George Beniface, George S. Biown, Aiston Brown, Sol Smith, Henry Watkins, Charles Rockwell, Miln Levick, W. B. Harrison, Benjamin Baker, J. F. Catheart, Charles Fisher, J. W. Collier, E. L. Tilton, James Dunn, Thomas Chapman, Alexander Fitzgerald, D. H. Harkins

Charles Pisher, J. W. Collier, E. L. Tilton, James Dunn, Thomas Chapnism, Alexander Pitzgerald, D. H. Harkins and George Beck.

The funeral procession entered the church about 1 p. m. The pall-bearers were Leon J. Vincent, George Beck, David Anderson, Charles Fisher, Daniel H. Harkins and James W. Coiller. The remains reposed in a handsome rosewood coffin. Upon the massive silver plate was the inscription: "Mary Staples; died July 16, 1878, aged forty-oight years and five months." The coffin was placed on a catafalque in front of the chancel, and surrounded by a few florial offerings, the most conspicuous of which was a large cross of tuberoses, bearing in purple immortelles the words, "Our Sister." This was sent by the "American Dramatic Fund Association," under whose auspices the funeral was conducted. The New George H. Houghton read the Episcopal funeral service, after which the choir sang "Rock of Ages." A short prayer by Dr. Houghton was followed by the hymn, "Just as I am, without one plea." The choir again sang "When our heads are bowed with wee." The remains were followed by unmerous friends to the Dramatic Lot in Cypress Hills Cemetery, where the burnal took place.

DEFEAT OF A DOUGHTY GATE-KEEPER. HOGG'S GATE UNDER CLOUD OF NIGHT IS CASE INTO

THE EAST RIVER. James Hogg, the reputed owner of the pier at the foot of East Eignty-fourth-st., visited the dock at 8 a. m. yesterday to renew the scenes of the previous day in keeping passengers from going on loard the steamer Oseo. To his great dismay be found that during the night the residents of Yorkville had ended all trouble by pulling down the gate at the entrance to the wharf. Mr. Hogg was unable to express his indignation when he saw that his plan to keep the passengers off the pier was completely defeated. He anxiously in-quired for the name of the person who damaged his property, but all his listeners were silent as the grave. He then said he would make a diligent search for the offender and bring him before a police magistrate. The passengers and steamboat hands only smiled at his defeat and their own success. Among themselves they denied all knowledge of the person who broke down the entrance. The gate could not even be found. It is thought that it was thrown into the river and floated down with the tide. Many of the people living in the viemity, hearing of the disturbances, visited the place yesterday to join in the sport. Seeing that everything was working smoothly, they took their first sail on the steamer. She was crowded during every trip. The cierk of the vessel said that he thought the difference between Mr. Hogg and Captain Longstreet would be amicably arranged to-day. The Yorkville people, he said, were constantly teiling the captain that Hogg had no right to the pier. But as long as Hogg insisted on holding the fort, the captain would pay him a reasonable sum. He thought the gate would be repaired last evening and no further disturbances would take place. He then said he would make a diligent search for the SWINDLING CLERKS HELD FOR TRIAL. For the third time Pearson Hendrickson, Villiam Hines, and Henry Phillips, charged with embezzling many thousands of dollars from the firm of Wilson & Greig, were arraigned before Justice Smith yesterday, in the Jefferson Market Police Court. The accused men were present in charge of Captain Byrnes and his officers. Samuel Wilson, the senior partner of the firm, made an affidavit against Phillips and Hendrickson. The affidavit set forth that Henry Phillips embezzied over $1,000, as his receipts show a falling of of nearly that amount. When the three prisoners were arraigned before Justice Smith, yesterday, Mr. Wilson declared that William Hines had confessed to him that he and Phillips had been in the habit of embezzling various sums of money after the appointment of James L. Jones as receiver. He added that in September, 1876, Phillips made entries of the receipts as $1,626 for a single week. when the total should have been $2,610. He charged that Hendrickson admitted to him complicity in the that Hendrickson admitted to him complicity in the frauds.

Mr. Wilson showed a great desire to prosecute both Hendrickson and Phillips, but he was opposed to making any charge against Mr. Hines. The latter was bookneeper for the firm at the time of their recent failure. It is said Mr. Wilson had a long consultation in the station house the previous evening with Hines, trying to uncerful the truth about the swindle. When told by the Justice that if he had any testimony against Hines he was bound to produce it, he charged Hines, on his own confession, with embezzing $55. Hines was committed in default of $1,000 ball to snswer. Henderson and Phillips were committed in default of $2,000 ball each for trial.

CHANGES IN THE TELEPHONE COMPANY. The Telephone Company has been reorganized. Its chief managers, Hilborne L. Roosevelt and C. A. Cheever, retire, and their interest is assumed by persons hitherto not connected with the company. Mr. and partly for business purposes. He desires to give all his time to his organ manufacturing business, and his time to his organ manufacturing business, and therefore leaves his position in the Telephone Company. Mr. Cheever doesn't care to be engaged at present in any very active business, such as that of the Telephone Company, and has therefore also resigned his place. The officers state that the force of employes of the company has been reduced lately because of the sulness of business in the city, most of its patrous belonging to a wealthy class that leave the city in the Summer. In the Antunin it is proposed to enlarge the business. The names of the new managers will be aunounced soon.

THE TEUTONIA SAVINGS BANK'S FUNDS. J. D. Fish, receiver of the Teutonia Savings Bank, stated yesterday that the old trastees, who were arrested on civil process and are now under heavy bail, have made propositions to settle in full their in. bail, have made propositions to ectile in full their indebtedness to the bank, many of them having made a tender of all the money illegally received by them. No payments have yet been accepted. Mr. Fish is effecting a saving in expense by assigning the mortgages held by the bank; over $50,000 in mortgages was assigned yesterday, and a much larger smount the day previous. A public sale of the securities held by the bank is announced for next Wednesday, from which Mr. Fish expects to receive a sufficient sum to be able to pay the depositors a dividend of 50 per cent by September 1.
He expects that depositors will realize fully 75 per cent of the amounts deposited.

GREAT DEMAND FOR FOUR PER CENTS. A private letter received from Washington centerday states that a double force of clerks has been placed in the Register's Office, to meet the heavy de mands made upon the department by the large orders for 4 per cent bonds. It is officially announced that in tor a per cent bonds. It sometaily announced that in the future no delays will occur in the registering of the popular foan. During the last two days the orders for registered 4 per cent bouds alone received at the First National Bank amounted to more fian $250,000, mainly in small amounts for perinanent investment, the grades of bonds ordered ranging from $50 to $5,000. This bank will make another $1,000,000 subscription for 4 per bonds early next week.

MERCHANTS' BANK CAPITAL REDUCED. At a meeting of the stockholders of the Merchants' National Bank yesterday, it was decided to reduce the capital of the bank from $3,000,000 to $2,000. 000. There were 43,000 shares represented out of a total of 60,000, and the vote was unanimous for the reduction. Excessive taxation is given as the reason for the reduc-tion. The taxes for the first six months of 1878 were $67,000, or at the rate of 4 per cent per anoum.

MRS. COOPERS DENIALS.

TESTIMONY UNDER CROSS-EXAMINATION. A VERY COOL WITNESS-LIVELY VERBAL ENCOUN-

TERS WITH THE PLAINTIFFS' COUNSEL. The cross-examination of Mrs. Cooper, or Mrs. Marshall, in the suit brought by the heirs of the estate of John Marshall, to restrain her from receiving a widow's portion of the estate, on the ground that her di vorce from Mr. Cooper was filegal, was continued before the referee, yesterday, for many hours, notwithstanding the excessive heat. Mrs. Cooper is a woman of fine ap pearance, tall and dignified. She was dressed entirely in black, yesterday, but not in what could be called mourning. Her dress was black grenadine; a lace mantle was thrown around her shoulders; her hat wa fashionable, but almost entirely covered by a black gause veil. She waved a black fan constantly, except when reflecting upon her replies, or listening to guments of the counsel. Then she bit the end of it. Mrs. Pritcher, her sister, sat near by. Her name was not nentloued by the witnesses as often as on the previous day. Oscar T. Marshall, one of the contesting heirs, was present most of the time. S. B. Ten Eyek appeared for the defendants; J. M. Scribner conducted the case in behalf of the Marshals. Mr. Ten Eyek invariably called the lady Mrs. Murshall, which she swears she is. Mr. Scribner just as invariably addressed her as Mrs. Cooper, which she hopes she is not.

However the heat may have affected the witness physically, her manner under examination was per-fectly cool and collected. In reply to Mr. Seribner's pointed questions she said: "While I lived at Mrs. Witherstine's house, Mr. Marshall and I both had our portraits painted. I kept them both. He paid for his own.

Mine I think was paid for with money I borrowed of Mr. Marshall. No, I don't know it positively. I only bought one dress with Mr. Marshall's money while I was at that house. It was brilliantine. I did not buy t black silk dress while living there. I had one made at that time, but it was bought before I want to Mrs. Witherstine's. John Marshall's money paid for the making of it. I generally cailed Mr. Cooper 'Mr. Cooper,' out 'Mike.' In the Winter of 'I'. at minnight, he did order me out of the house. I took my two children and Eloomiseld Phillips and went to Miss Pritcher's—my sister. This is Miss Pritcher," said the witness, pointing to her sister, who sat behind her. "She's always here." Then, under further examination she continued: "Abraham 8. Sherman was steward at the New-York Hotel, at Pleasure Bay, while Mr. Cooper and I were living there. I never paid him money to conceal from Mr. Cooper the visits of other gentiemen to me; nor for putting out the horse when I had been out riding with other men." There was objection to the questions which elicited these answers, but Mr. Scribner insisted that they were to show that Mrs. Cooper's conduct when living with Mr. Cooper had not been that of a faithin wife. The Judge allowed the questions. At the words "faithful wife" the witnesses her teeth. "I'm not afraid to answer those questions," exclaimed Mrs. Cooper, "You can't make anything against me there unless you buy your witnesses, Mr. Seribner. Pay money for having my herse put out to keep my husband from knowing that I had been out riding with other men! Newer—Humph! I'm perfectly willing to produce any men I have been out driving with." that time, but it was bought before I went to Mrs. With-

with."

There was some dispute about continuing the examination, and some task of putting Mrs. Pritcher on the stand. Mrs. Cooper said if she had to remain in equit she would prefer to be examined further. If Mrs. Pritcher stayed she must also. "We are sisters, you know, Mr. Scribner," she said. "Yes, one and inseparable—Siamese twins "—was the reply. Then Mrs. Cooper weut on to assure Mr. Scribner that he had treated her very nicely on this occasion, and had not confused be at all.

Finally, the case was postponed until Monday at 1 p. m, but before the adjournment Mrs. Cooper insisted upon explaining about the black silk dress. "It looks lind as it stands," site said, "I carned $600 before I went to Dr. White's, by washing in the laundry for the boarders. I took $300 of this to pay some of Mr. Cooper's debts. With part of the rest I bought that silk dress."

ENTRAPPED IN A DISORDERLY HOUSE.

About six weeks ago Miss Ella Dorr, whose parents reside in Washington, came to this city on busigess, and accidentally made the acquaintance of Anetta Ford, who keeps a disrepurable house at No. 266 West Forty-seventh-st. Miss Dorr, who is well educated and refined, unwittingly accepted an invitation to the den kept by Mrs. Ford, where she was not only ruined, but it is Ford, where she was not only rulned, but it is scharged by the young lady that subsequently an abortion was attempted upon her, from the effects of which she is still suffering. It is stated that Miss Dorr, being unable to escape from the den where she was forcibly detailed, succeeded in corresponding with her mother. The mother came to this city, and after some trouble succeeded in rescuing her daughter, but not without a struggle. Mrs. Dorr charges that while endeavoring to gain possession of her daughter, the woman Ford made indecent proposals to her, and threatened to detail her in the house. Mrs. Ford and two girls found in her house were arrested list night by Captain Ward of the Twenty-second Precinct.

It is thought that Mr. Keewin's assets will be sufficient to cover the unsecured creditors. Mr. Kerwin was a heavy speculator in real estate, the great depreclator of which was the cause of the assignment. A meeting of the creditors will be held at the United States court building at Cliaton and Montaguesta, Brooklyn, July 27, to prove their claims and choose an assignee.

A PERENADE TO JAMES GORDON BENNETT. NEWPORT, R. I., July 19 .- James Gordon nett was serenaded by the Newport Band to-night which was sent there by the Citizens' Committee. There was also a large display of fireworks, and the elegant grounds of Mr. Bennett's Summer residence were bril-liantly filaminated. The object of the demonstration was to show Mr. Bennett that the business men of the place appreciate what he has done for Newport in the past. HOME NEWS.

Spiral bands are now largely worn instead f the plain round bangle. Altman has novelties in fans, the upper part of which represent gerantum leaves.

There will be music at the Mall in Central Park at 4 p. m. to-day.

Black velvet belts are very much improved by being embroidered in variegated silk.

The squadron of the New-York Yacht Club will assemble at Glen Cove, Long Island, on August 6, for its annual cruise.

George Schuler, generally known as "Fatty Schuler, who weighed nearly 400 pounds, died yesterday at St. Barnabas Hospital.

There was something especially aggravating yesterday to pedestrians without umbrellas in the cry of the boot-black—"Shine t"

The "Balsamo" hat, named after Dumas's ast play, is one of the newest hafs, and when trimmed simply with a long vel: caught with a bunch of flowers is very handsome and becoming. Outside pockets are seen on some of the latest toilets. With the present style of dress they are almost indispensable, and when not on the dress their place is supplied by the velvet chatelaine pocket. William Grabaw, who was taken to the hambers Street Hospital on Thursday last, suffering from alcoholism, left the hospital yesterday morning, and has not been since seen by any of his friends. In order to accommodate sojourners in the ountry or at the seaside, the Mercantile Library allows members to take five extra volumes for seven weeks of payment of $1. The library will be open all Summer.

John McCall, a brother of Ella McCall, the actress, who committed snicide on Wednesday, was taken to Bellevue Hospital yesterday, suffering from delirium tremeus. Since his sister's death he is said to have been drinking almost constantly.

During these torrid days, a well-known advertising agent says he finds quite an unusual throng of acquaintances socking THE TRIBUNE elevators to make their way to his airy office. They explain that they can-not get comfortable anywhere clse so well as at Mack's Summer Retreat.

Alice Trevylain, the pseudo detective with fondness for male attire, was fully committed yesterday to the Island for one month by Justice Smith in default of $400 ball. Her aristocratic Newport friends regard her as beyond reclamation, and refuse to have anything to do with her. John D. O'Connor, age sixty, of No. 3

Washington-st., a man of intemperate habits, fell from the Government pier at the Battery into the North River while intoxicated yesterday morning, and was drowned. The body was recovered, and removed to his late residence by his friends. The police of the Twelfth (Harlem) Precinct enjoyed their annual festival yesterday afternoon in Harlem River Park. Chowder was served at 4 o'clock. Officer Murphy bore off the prize for the best eater, and Officer Lally for the best dancer. The festivi-ties were kept up until midnight. Passengers for Long Branch and Manhattan Beach were yesterday astonished at the vision on Rector. st., near the entrance to Pier 8, of a man cribbed and confined in a coffin-like street stand, stripped to his draw-ers and shirt, and with the perspiration pouring from every pour, engaged in opening systers. The engineer of the 8 a. m. train on the Hariem Railroad yesterday discovered on the track at Railrond-ave, and Fitch-st., Harlem, a young child. The train was stopped in time to save the child's life. The infant, which was only sixteen months old, was taken to the Thirty-fourth Precinct Police Station, where it was claimed by its parents.

The examination of Mrs. Nellie Danforth on a charge of having been the sceomptice of a man who passed a counterfeit bill on Mrs. Jennie A. At an inquest yesterday on Catharine Cavanaugh, age forty-two, who was drowned on July 3 near the Blackwell's Island Lunatic Asylum, the jury recommended that the Department of Charities and Corretion provide a proper railing for the sea wall at that place to prevent similar accidents. In the case of the unknown man who was killed by the falling of a lumber pile at No. 49 Teath-ave, on July 11, the jury rendered a verdict of accidental death.

BROOKLYN.

There will be music in Prospect Park at 4 o. m. to-day, by the 23d Regiment Band.

Godfrey Ward, of No. 47 Prince-st., has been missing from home for two weeks. He was em-ployed as a clerk by Van Riper & Co., No. 174 Duane-st., N.Y. He was thirty-two years old, and of temperate habits. He was a member of the Republican Central Committee of King's County. Robert Taylor, of Schenck-st., was arrested vesterday for striking his mother-in-law, Mary Barry, eighty years old, with a table leg. He pleaded that he was drunk and while the household was moving the old lady got in his way, when he struck her. He will be tried before Justice Riley to-day.

AN ANGRY CARD FROM EPPA HUNTON, HE LOSES HIS TEMPER AND CALLS COLUMBUS ALEX-

ANDER BLACKGUARD NAMES. (BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.)

WASHINGTON, July 19 .- In The Alexandria Gazette of to-day General Hunton publishes a card in which he reviews the whole of a recent correspondence between bimself and Columbus Alexander in reference to the passage of a certain bill in Congress with reference to District affairs. He prints the letters in full. General Hunton closes as follows:

General Hunton closes as follows:

I have thus given this individual an opportunity to show that he is a gentleman and a man of courage, but he has not done me the justice of the one or been willing to accord me the redress of the other. He refuses to come from the protection of the police he affects to despise, and I cannot reach him without exposing friends to the penitentiary. I therefore proclaim him a malicious liar, a vulgar blackguard, and an irresponsible coward. The public is assured I shall take no further notice of Columbus Alexauder or any publication from him.

THE AGITATION FOR SOUTH TYROL. LONDON, Friday, July 19, 1878.

The rumor of the probabilities of the resignation of Count Corti, the Italian Prime Minister, is de nied from several sources. The entire Ministry approve of his conduct and will accept the responsibility therefor before Parliament. Fifty meetings in favor of the annexation of Southern Tyrol to Italy, are organizing in the principal towns. The agitators are Extremists and their cause is disapproved of by the best people. The Government cannot interfere with the meetings so long as they do not vio ate the law, though the bad effect in Austria of the agitation is fully recognized.

PAPAL AUTHORITY IN PRUSSIA. LONDON, Friday, July 19, 1878.

A dispatch from Rome says that negotiations are now in an advanced stage whereby the Papal Nuncio residing in Munich, Saxony, will have jurisdiction over the Catholic Church and bishops in Prussia. This com-promise would probably lead to a conciliatory arrange-ment between Prussia and the Vatican.

THE HANOVERIAN CLAIMANT. BERLIN, Friday, July 19, 1878.

Ex-Ministers Munchhausen and Windthorst advise the Duke of Cumberland, son of the late King George of Hanover, to come to a compromise with Prussia regarding his claims. LFor other Foreign Nesce see First Page.

CORNELL REJOICING.

THE CREW'S WELCOME HOME.

A GRAND PROCESSION-EXCELLENT SPEECHES AND A BANQUET-ANOTHER INTER-UNIVERSITY CON-

TEST PROPOSED. [FROM A SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT OF THE TRIBUNE.] ITHACA, July 18 .- Cornell cannot bear success easily. How she would bear defeat it would be curious to know. The victorious freshmen crew, on their return to their university home this morning, were tendered a most enthusias tic reception by students and citizens of Ithacu. The members of the crow, in excellent con dition and spirits, left Owasco Lake this afternoon in company with their "coaches," Lewis and Gardiner, and Commodore Baker. The Harvard men had gone earlier in the day. They bore their defeat quietly and in a manly spirit. A special car brought the Cornell men to the top of University Hill, at 8 o'clock in the evening. There they were met by the 50th Regiment Band and a large number of students and citizens. The crew were greeted with the university yell and A procession was formed and started down the hill. It was headed by a carriage in which were Vice-President Burbanks and Professor Potter; then followed the cor-net band, then the carriage, resplendent with cornelian and white ribbons, in which sat the victorious nine, and which was drawn by twenty-live members of the Cornell Navy; finally came other stages, in which were critical students firing sky-rockets and romen-candles. Thus they marched down into the principal street of the town, where the excitement reached its height. Statest., for nearly half a mile, was one continuous blaze of window illuminations, Chiuese fireworks and burning fire-balls. Cannous reared, rockets crackled, bells rang, and above all the din could be heard the peculiar cry of the students, "Cornell-I-yell-yell-yell-Cornell," shouted in concert. The sidewalks were lined with people; probably half as many persons witnessed the return of the victors as watched the race. The procession passed through the principal streets, where many of the residences were brightly illuminated, and entered the large park. The crew, professors and "coaches" cutered the music-stand, around which gathered more than 1,000 persons. was drawn by twenty-five members of the Coravy; finally came other stages, in which were ex music-stand, around which gathered more than 1,000 persons.

Professor Potter, addressing them, said: "All hono to our carsmen. They have made the name of Cornelly illustrious over the world. Columbia has conquored the British champions, but Cornell vanquished Columbia at Saratoga (cheers), and is therefore the champion of the world. (Cornell's cry]. I believe in these athietic sports. If they had existed when I was a student in college, I wouldn't have been blear-eyed to-day and have to wear these glasses. I should have cultivated some physique. Let us have more of these sports." [Applause].

Said Vice-President Russell: "Two days ago, at a distance from here, I was asked what were the relations between the students of the university and the people of the town. If I had my questioner here to-night, I would make answer by pointing to this scene of courtuinsiasm, in which the feelings of students and chizens appear to be common. We rejoice, not so much that a freshman crew of Cornell has beaten another of Harvard, as that a number of Cornell mon, having undertaken a piece of work, did it with fidelity, and did what Cornell expected them to do. [Applause.] These contests Indicate the interest which the world is laking in physical development. The good brains of the world, is beginning to be understood, must be in good bodies." [Applause.]

Later in the evening the crew sat down to a banquet

[Appiause.]

Later in the evening the crew sat dewn to a banquet at the Cinton House. Captain Shinkei is now the here of the university. He is cool, modest and self-possessed and never wastes words or actions. Gardiner says that Ostrom aside, Shinkel is the best oarsman that ever sat in a Cornell boat. His early life was passed in a stern school of experience, and it has made him a hardy man. "Give as six more such men as he and Lewis," says Gardiner, "and we will be ready to meet any university eight in the world."
